

Discovering the Land Down Under

Australia also continues to experience record growth. In fact, Australia's cruise industry surpassed a major milestone in 2014, exceeding more than one million passengers in a calendar year. In ten years, Australia's cruise passengers have grown more than six-fold, from a base of 158,000 in 2004. A record 143 cruises will be offered in Australia and New Zealand. As flight prices to the Land Down Under become more affordable, its popularity with North American travelers continues to grow.
