

Cruise Lines Are Expanding Destinations

Many traditional cruise destinations like the Caribbean and Alaska are reaching maximum capacity. It's an opportunity for the cruise lines to branch out, and they have! In Asia, cruise capacity has grown 46 percent since 2013. Several cruise lines have diversified in Europe, which is ever more popular with cruisers. A record 143 cruises are on the books in 2015 for Australia. The more cruise destinations, the more opportunities for your clients to book with you!

Other Sales Tips!

If your clients are looking for small, authentic shore excursions, then you've come to the right place. Cruise lines tend to sell crowded, mass-market excursions, but our average shore excursion size is only 12 people. Plus, our guides are local experts, not mass-market tour leaders, giving your clients the expertise they desire!
